

Innogen Knowledge Exchange Workshop Series

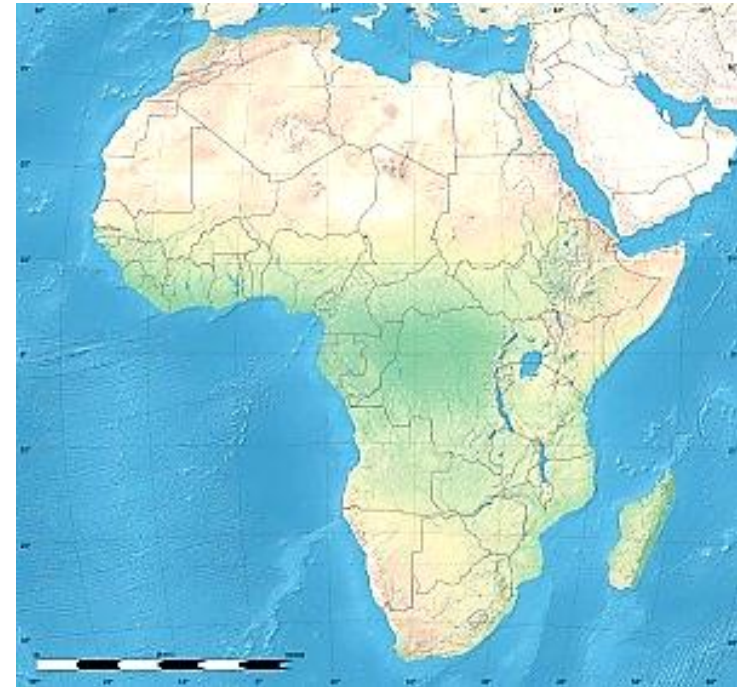

African Local Pharmaceutical Manufacturing and Medicines Supply: What's in the future?

Topics

- Strengthening local manufacture in East, West and Southern Africa.*
- Production and Below the Radar Innovation in resource constrained environments.*
- Economies of scale/ efficiency – can local pharmaceutical manufacture be efficient?*
- Financing local pharmaceutical production: Who, How and Why?*
- Innovation/R&D capabilities development : Can they be sustained?*
- Access to medicines and sustaining international and local competition.*
- African Union Pharmaceutical Manufacturing Plan of Action Business Plan.*

Presenters:

- Prof Maureen Mackintosh: The Open University
- Mr Philip Mhiko: Varichem Pharmaceuticals
- Mr Wesley Ronoh: GIZ-EAC Programme
- Prof Sudip Chaudhuri: Indian Institute of Management Kolkata.
- Mr Alastair West: UNIDO
- Geoff Banda: The Open University

Date: 28 March 2013
Time: 9:30 am to 5:30pm
Venue: The Open University Camden Campus
 1-11 Hawley Crescent
 Camden Town
 London
 NW1 8NP

A one day workshop on African local pharmaceutical manufacture and medicines supply to health systems

Registration required. For more information contact: Maureen Mackintosh; Maureen.Mackintosh@open.ac.uk or Geoff Banda; Geoffrey.Banda@open.ac.uk