

Digital and online violence: regional perspectives
Horwood House, 7-8 September 2022

@Observaw #ESRC #UKSKdigi

---

Conference programme

Day 1 – 7 September 2022

10am Arrival tea / coffee

Welcome & introductions

Session 1. PhD session (4 papers x 15 min) (10.30 – 12.00)

1. Eisha Choudhary.
Tech mediated misogyny and gender-based violence on digital platforms impacting economic lives of Muslim women in India.
2. Lien Stolle, Ghent University.
Understanding the reality of online intimidation: an empirical analysis of online intimidation tactics used against environmental defenders with the aim of silencing them.
3. Angelica Fernandez, University of Luxembourg.
An EU- Level Response for Deepfakes: Beyond Revenge Porn.
4. Demelza Luna Reaver, UCL.
An indicator of high-risk of homicide: Technology facilitated abuse within Domestic Homicide Reviews in England.

12 – 1.00pm LUNCH BREAK

Session 2. Regional Perspectives: Africa & the Middle East. (1.00 – 3.00pm)

1. Siphwe Phoya Mchenga, Law Commission (Malawi).
The protection of women from online violence in Malawi.
2. Roni Rosenberg, Ono Academic College (Israel).
Online Sexual Violence and the Implications on the Victims
3. Tara Harris, The Independent Institute for Education (South Africa)
Adolescent sexting: when does it become online victimisation?
4. Nora Noralla, Cairo 52 Legal Research Institute / ILSC Milan.
Shrinking Spaces: Inside MENA's Queer Cyber Space.

3 – 3.30pm    TEA AND COFFEE BREAK

Session 3. Regional Perspectives: South Korea. (3.30 – 5.00 pm)

1. Hyo Won Kang, Seoul National University Human Rights Centre.
Holding Bystanders / Mere Participants Accountable: In the context of the “Nth Chat Room Case” in South Korea.
2. Jiso Yoon, KWDI (Seoul).
Digital and Online Violence in South Korea: A Review of Empirical Research and Suggestions for the Future
3. Mijeong Lee, KWDI (Seoul).
Protecting Child and Youth Victims of Online Sexual Exploitation and Abuse in Korea.
4. Minjeong Kim, Hankuk University of Foreign Studies (Seoul).
Online Gender-Based Hate Speech in South Korea: Reframing the Issue

BREAK

Conference dinner 7.00pm – Horwood House

Day 2 – 8 September 2022

09.30 - 10am Arrival tea/ coffee

Session 4. European Perspectives & Alternative Spaces. (10.00 – 12.00)

1. Elisabetta Stringhi, ISLC (Milan).
The Italian approach to tackling non-consensual dissemination of intimate images.
2. Goran Livazović & Igor Vuletić, University in Osijek (Croatia).
Sexting as a form of adolescent online violence: empirical findings from the Croatian perspective.
3. Emma Bond & Andy Phippen
Tackling digital and online violence at UK universities – using evidence-based approaches.
4. Danielle Borges (EUI) & Renata Vaz-Shimbo (independent researcher).
Disinformation as a trigger for polarisation and online violence: the 2018 presidential elections in Brazil and the way forward.

12 – 1.00pm LUNCH BREAK

Session 5. Policing / Reforming Online Violence. (1.00 – 3.00pm)

1. Holly Taylor-Dunn, OU.
Policing domestic abuse cyberstalking – key lessons from a pilot project evaluation.
2. Alisdair A Gillespie, Lancaster University.
Intimate image abuse: does the Law Commission have the answer?
3. Ángel Gordo López & M. <sup>a</sup> José Rubio Martín, Universidad Complutense de Madrid.
Beyond the algorithm: the institutional basis of digital gender violence.

3 – 3.30pm TEA AND COFFEE BREAK

3.30pm – 4pm Closing Remarks & Next Steps

CONFERENCE CLOSE

[Dinner for conference organisers / partners – 6.30pm]