Renamo to join elections; registration delayed 2 weeks

Renamo will participate in the national elections.

In an extraordinary session today, 29 January, the Council of Ministers agreed to a two week delay in the registration period, which will now be 15 February to 29 April. The Council of Ministers said the delay was requested by Renamo so that it could prepare and participate in the 15 October elections for President, national parliament, and provincial assemblies.
